Tuesday, November 4, 2025, 10:00 am – 2:30 pm
Loyola University Medical Center (EMS Building 110, Room 3284)

Advance your clinical practice with our evidence-based program designed for perinatal nurses, physicians, lactation consultants, speech & language pathologists/therapists, and occupational therapists!

Our Speakers:

- Summer Kelly, MS, RN, IBCLC, Executive Director and Founder of Mothers' Milk Bank of the Western Great Lakes, molecular biologist, researcher, author, educator and former NICU RN.
- Kathryn A. Patton, MD, MPH, Maternal Fetal Medicine Fellow, Loyola University Medical Center.
- (John) Yixin Xu, MD, Neonatal Fellow, Loyola University Medical Center.
- Jill Rabin, MS CCC-SLP/L IBCLC, Pediatric Speech Pathologist and International Board-Certified Lactation Consultant, educator, author, international speaker, and podcaster. Jill has been working with the 0- to 3-year-old population and their families with feeding and speech/language issues for over 36 years.

About this Program: Our keynote speaker, Summer Kelly, highlights human milk bioactive factors that help shape the infant microbiome, the effects of pasteurization and exciting advances in human milk banking. A comprehensive approach to the multidisciplinary management of prenatal and neonatal cleft lip and palate are presented by Dr. Patton and Dr. Xu, and Jill Rabin addresses feeding challenges that mothers and health care providers face, particularly with infants with cleft lip and palate. An interactive case-based activity for screening and management of hypoglycemia for at risk infants is also included.
